Founded in 1955, FPRI is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization devoted to bringing the insights of scholarship to bear on the development of policies that advance U.S. national interests. FPRI adds perspective to events by fitting them into the larger historical and cultural context of international politics.

The University of Pennsylvania Museum

The museum offers its two most popular tours – choose one!!

Penn Museum

Tour #1: Ancient Alcohol – A Taste of Bygone Booze

Check out early drinking vessels – get up close to and examine one of the world's oldest wine jars and learn about alcohol in the afterlife – (taste some of these beverages which have been brought to life!).

Tour #2: Global Guides Tour of the Middle East Galleries

The Global Guides Program offers gallery tours led by immigrants and refugees from Syria and Iraq. The guides share historical information and combine personal experiences to enhance the artifacts.

About the University of Pennsylvania Museum:

A million objects – including art and artifacts from around the globe are housed at the museum – one of the world's finest archaeological and anthropological museums.
